FLOOR DEBATE

May 29, 2001

LB 24, 435, 451, 451A, 851
LR 266

think, we should have a full debate because it will involve requests in the future from other similarly situated people to do the same thing and to use the same techniques and to afford the same protections, and you will want to ask yourself should we start down this path. Because, as far as I know, this would be the first time that we have started down a kind of rent control, price control, department of government deciding what's fair and reasonable control proposition. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Beutler. Senator Dierks, you're recognized to close on your motion to bracket.

SENATOR DIERKS: Thank you, Mr. President. Members of the Legislature, I can't tell you how disappointed I am that we have to do this, because there are a whole lot of people that spent an awful lot of time the last three years. We've had interim studies. We've had the bill presented before. This was a different bill this year. We thought that everything was pretty well worked out and I'm really disappointed to find that I have this many bracket...or this many amendments on the bill this morning. But I don't think that I can take the body's time to go through that and so, with that, I'd like to ask your support in pulling this...putting this...approving this bracket motion. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Dierks. The question is, shall LB 435 be bracketed until January 10, 2002? Those in favor vote aye; those opposed vote nay. Mr. Clerk, please record.

CLERK: 28 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, to bracket LB 435.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: The motion is adopted. Mr. Clerk, items for the record.

CLERK: Mr. President, thank you. The bill read on Final Reading this morning has been presented to the Governor as of 9:45 (re LB 851). I have motions to be printed with respect to LB 451, LB 451A, and LB 24, those motions being that those respective bills become law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor. Mr. President, LR 266 has been introduced by the
